no way?!

Did you get an info why that happened?

Maybe the same thing what happened when i ordered in september the 3080 via amazon. they took much much more orders that they can handle. Actually, In fact they hadn't a single one in stock at that time.

Sry for you, but u might get your next shot soon. For sure, even a better one - Keep it up!

Yes, I see also some scalpers on eBay delete their auction because amazon delete also their 24Th December buy

An amazon operator said to me they have had some problems with their availability software...

I have loosen my hope to have this card in 2020...

I hope that this space of time will help me to think more rationally

but I see it hard ..

the howler monkey is hitting hard on my head 😊
